

Isaac & Jessica

Dear Expectant Parent,

We would like to start by saying that we think what you're doing is incredible. We know that it is one of, if not the hardest decisions of your life, but we are so glad that you are considering us. You have a lot of choices to make about your baby and we hope that whatever choice you make is best for you. You and your baby are so valued by us and we want to make sure that you know.

We are Isaac and Jessica. We hope this profile gives you a glimpse into our lives and you are able to learn more about us.

Love,
Isaac and Jessica

Our Promise to You

Having a biological child is not an option for us. Having grown up with several adopted friends, We have both had experience with adoption. Isaac would love the opportunity to fulfill his dream of becoming a dad. Jessica has always dreamed of adopting a child one day.

We hope to develop a long and wonderful relationship with you and your baby. We intend to fully welcome you both into our lives. Watching our unique family grow will be wonderful and we can't wait to begin that journey. Getting to tell our little one all about how you made such a loving and hard choice will be something that helps them understand how important ALL of their parents are.

Isaac

Isaac is the Yin to Jessica's Yang. He has an amazing ability to take things as they come and just be completely calm and unflappable. This is a trait that will continue to serve him well in his career and as a dad.

Isaac just graduated as a Physician's Assistant. He will calmly take care of his patients and make sure everything is taken care of. He is so smart and patient, characteristics that will make him a great father.

Jessica

Jessica is such a smart, wonderful, opinionated, sassy, and, most importantly, beautiful person...inside and out. When she decides she wants to do something, it will get done.

She has a wonderful and fulfilling job where she helps people secure home loans and because of this, she has a very flexible schedule.

Our lives involve our pets quite a bit and they are all very important to us. We have seven different animals and enjoy being around and playing with our furry friends each day. We love taking them along on all sorts of adventures and have been fortunate enough to find wonderful and experienced trainers to make sure they're all well-behaved.

Every one of our pets has been rescued and they're all wonderfully unique. We have a horse, two dogs, three cats, and some fish. We hope to someday have a larger property where we can add ponies and a fishing pond.

Thank You!

We want to thank you so much for considering us as parents for your baby. The amount of respect we have for you simply can't be described. We truly hope that you are able to find the perfect fit and peace in your decision. Thank you again.
